(Little Rock) - The Arkansas Natural Resources Commission announced today, approval of a loan in an amount up to $2,060,000 from the Arkansas Water, Waste Disposal and Pollution Abatement Facilities General Obligation Bonds Fund to Star City (Lincoln County), according to Commission Chairman Fred Fowlkes. The loan is for 20 years at 3.9 % interest. Approval is contingent upon the city establishing and maintaining a three percent depreciation reserve fund.

"The funds will be used for a wastewater system improvement project that will serve 1,106 customers," said Mark Bennett, ANRC Water Development Division Manager.
