Resolution No. 2017-04 of the Arkansas Natural Resources Commission

A Resolution to Recognize Mr. David Feilke for his Contributions to the State of Arkansas

Whereas, Mr. David Feilke served fourteen years on the Arkansas Natural Resources Commission with initial appointment by Governor Huckabee and subsequent appointment by Governor Beebe;

Whereas, prior to his service on the Commission, Mr. Feilke's long history of leadership in agriculture included service as Director of both Riceland Foods, Incorporated and the United Soybean Board; Chairman of the Arkansas Corn and Grain Sorghum Research and Promotion Board; and Secretary/ Treasurer of the Arkansas Soybean Promotion Board;

Whereas, prior to his service on the Commission, Mr. Feilke obtained a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture from the University of Arkansas and graduated from the Rice Leadership Development Program;

Whereas, Mr. Feilke has grown rice, corn, soybean, and wheat, and was recognized as the 1999 Prairie County Conservation Farmer of the Year;

Whereas, Mr. Feilke's experiences and education enabled him to provided valuable guidance to the Commission, and were especially useful to the 2014 Update of the Arkansas Water Plan;

Whereas, Mr. Feilke continues to champion water conservation through his service on the White River Irrigation District Board;

Now therefore, be it resolved in unanimous accord by the members of the Arkansas Natural Resources Commission, that Mr. David Feilke be duly recognized for his service to Arkansas and his commitment to protecting and preserving our natural resources.

Adopted this 15th day of November 2017.

ARKANSAS NATURAL RESOURCES COMMISSION

By: _____
Don Richardson, Chair

Attest:

_____
Bruce Holland, Executive Director and Secretary