

NOTICE TO ABSENTEE PROVISIONAL VOTERS

The County Board of Election Commissioners will count the provisional ballot only upon verification of the voter's voter registration status or, if applicable, presentation of required identification or an affidavit of indigence or religious objection. The County Board of Election Commissioners will notify the voter as to whether or not the vote was counted by first class mail. The voter may be heard by the county board at the date, time, and location indicated on this notice regarding the voter's eligibility to vote in the election if the voter's ballot was rejected for reasons other than failure to present required identification.

The absentee ballot which became a provisional ballot for failure to submit required identification will be counted if the voter presents one of the following to the county clerk or the county board of election commissioners by noon of the first Monday following the election:

- (1) A copy of current and valid photo identification, OR
- (2) A copy of a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck or other government document that shows the name and address of the voter, OR
- (3) An affidavit of indigence or religious objection to being photographed.

The absentee voter shall present the required identification or his or her affidavit of indigence or religious objection by:

- (1) Mail; OR
- (2) In person by the voter; OR
- (3) In person by a third person designated by the voter.

When the identification is delivered by a third person, it must be accompanied by a written statement of the voter, signed and dated by the voter, stating the person's name and address and that the person has been authorized by the voter to deliver the identification for the voter. Other than the administrator of a long-term care or residential care facility licensed by the state, no person may deliver to the clerk or election commission the identification of more than two absentee voters. If no written statement is included with the required identification delivered by a third person, the ballot shall not be counted.

An administrator of a long-term care or residential care facility licensed by the state may deliver to the clerk or election commission the identification documentation from any of the residents of the administrator's facility who submitted absentee ballots.
