For Immediate Release:

With the upcoming threat of winter weather, Johnson County Judge Herman Houston, Clarksville Mayor David Rieder, Johnson County Sheriff Jimmy Stephens, Clarksville Chief of Police Jeff Ross, and Safe Haven, have joined efforts to set up the following locations as temporary warming centers:

- Lobby of Johnson County Detention Center
- Lobby of Clarksville City Police Department
- Basement of the Courthouse (overflow only)
- Marvin Vinson Center (only in event of major power outage)

The warming centers are currently scheduled to be open Wednesday Afternoon thru the weekend (or as necessary). This is a temporary emergency option, should County and City citizens be without heat and need a warm place to go.

Herman H. Houston
Johnson County Judge
