

SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
FOURTH DIVISION CIRCUIT COURT
PULASKI AND PERRY COUNTIES

The County Judge has closed the Pulaski County Courthouse to everyone but County Staff, through March 31. In order to provide critical services, the following procedures will be instituted:

1. All Civil hearings will be continued, rulings on pleadings and issuance of orders will continue as normal
2. All Criminal matters, where the Defendant is not in custody, can be continued by agreement of the parties and tolling speedy trial, by contacting Susie or Paula
3. All Criminal matters, where the Defendant is in custody, will be dealt with on a case by case basis. If your client is in custody, please:
  - a. Contact the assigned prosecutor and see if an agreement on bond, plea or other issue can be reached.
    - i. If an agreement is reached, please contact Susie or Paula and let them know and the appropriate steps will be taken
    - ii. If an agreement cannot be reached, please arrange a conference call and we will find a resolution.
4. All Defendants in custody will be seen by video with the Prosecutor and Public Defender present.
5. Waiver of arraignments will be accepted in writing, listing all of the pending charges, the next court appearance and signed by counsel and the defendant- Please call Susie or Paula for a court date.
6. Judge Andy Gill has agreed to handle the remaining criminal cases for March and April in Perry County.
7. If you have an issue on a case that needs immediate attention, contact opposing counsel and conference me in.
