PULASKI COUNTY CIRCUIT AND COUNTY CLERK TERRI HOLLINGSWORTH ANNOUNCES NEW TEMPORARY OPERATION BUSINESS HOURS

Pulaski County Courthouse Will Remain Closed to the Public through March 31

(LITTLE ROCK, ARK.) – Pulaski County Circuit and County Clerk Terri Hollingsworth announces new temporary operation hours, 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m., effective Monday, March 23 through March 31, 2020.

The Pulaski County Courthouse and the Circuit and County Clerk's offices are still observing restricted access for the general public as mandated by the county judge through executive order. The clerk's office will remain "open for business" remotely via phone, fax, email, online submission and mail.

There are a small number of transactions that will be conducted in person, as required, including:

- Requests for orders of protection may be made in person at the courthouse.
- Commissioner Sales will take place as scheduled, on March 26, at 12:00 p.m., and will be conducted outside the Pulaski County Courthouse's Markham Street entrance.

Customers should call the clerk's office before planning to come to the courthouse.

Using the clerk's website, www.pulaskiclerk.com, customers can access court orders, real estate records, official forms, data searches, and individual department phone numbers and email addresses. Those unable to use the website, can call the appropriate department and staff for assistance. Staff will advise whether a trip to the courthouse is necessary.

Hours of Operation: 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.; Monday – Friday
