Dear Candidate;

Per Arkansas Code Annotated §7-4-101, the State Board of Election Commissioners publishes a candidate handbook outlining, in a readable and understandable format, the legal obligations of a candidate and other suggestions to help candidates comply with election laws. The State Board of Election Commissioners, with the assistance of the Secretary of State's office and the Arkansas Ethics Commission, has developed this handbook for candidates running for public office that explains the necessary qualifications for holding public office, identifies filing procedures for candidates, and outlines campaign finance and disclosure reporting requirements under Arkansas law. This handbook is available upon request to all candidates running for public office.

Please note, this handbook is a guide and not a substitute for state law. You are encouraged to consult the Arkansas Ethics Commission for questions regarding campaign finance and disclosure reporting requirements, deadlines, and penalties; ballot question committees; county political party committees; exploratory committees; independent expenditure committees; legislative caucus committees; legislative question committees; political action committees (PACs); disclosure of financial information by public officials and candidates; political patronage; use of public labor or facilities for campaign purposes by a public servant; coercion of public employees for political purposes; campaign signs on government vehicles; and disclaimers on paid political ads. For questions regarding candidate filing procedures; candidate petition requirements; confirmation of specific dates; and blank forms and instructions, please contact the Secretary of State's office.

The State Board of Election Commissioners is pleased to offer you this 2020 edition of the Running for Public Office Handbook. We also encourage you to visit our website at www.arkansas.gov/sbec for additional information. Please feel free to contact our office if we can assist you in any way.

Sincerely,
Daniel Shults
Director

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Electioneering at Polls

May a candidate or a candidate's supporters campaign at a polling place while voting is taking place?

Campaigning is only allowed more than 100 feet from the primary exterior entrance to the polling site used by voters. Candidates and their supporters may not post signs, hand out campaign materials, solicit signatures on petitions, solicit charitable contributions, wear campaign apparel or accessories, or do any electioneering of any kind inside the 100' boundary at a polling place on election day or during early voting. [A.C.A. §§7-1-103(a)(9); 7-1-104(a)(7)]

May a candidate's campaign post signs or electioneer at any location on the property outside the 100' boundary?

Private property owners (churches, businesses) who allow their facilities to be used as polls may restrict electioneering on their property, even outside the 100' boundary. Check with the property owner before posting signs or engaging in other types of electioneering on the property. (See, AG Opinion No. 2011-009)

Campaign Signs & Ads

Where on public property may campaign signs be posted?

Check with city and county government about ordinances or regulations about posting campaign signs on street or road right of ways. Check with the highway department regarding regulations of state highway right of ways. Campaign signs cannot be placed on all public property so check with state, local or federal governmental officials about posting signs on other types of public property.

What are the requirements for campaign advertisements and other materials?

The state election code requires that all literature mailed to electors and "articles, statements, or communications appearing in any newspaper printed or circulated in this state intended or calculated to influence the vote of any elector in any election and for the publication of which a consideration is paid or to be paid shall clearly contain the words 'Paid Political Advertisement', 'Paid Political Ad', or 'Paid for by' the candidate, committee, or person who paid for the message," and also that all "articles, statements, or communications appearing in any radio, television, or any other electronic medium intended or calculated to influence the vote of any elector in any election and for the publication of which a consideration is paid or to be paid shall clearly contain the words: (a) 'Paid political advertisement' or 'paid political ad'; or (b) 'Paid for by', 'sponsored by', or 'furnished by' the true sponsor of the advertisement."

Campaign signs, campaign literature, and other printed campaign materials shall clearly contain the words "Paid for by" followed by the name of the political candidate, political action committee, independent expenditure committee, or person who paid for the sign, mailing, literature, or other printed material. [A.C.A. §7-1-103(7), §7-6-228 (c)(1), and Act 1058 of 2019]

Poll Watchers

May a candidate have a representative at polling places to observe voting and challenge ineligible voters?

A candidate may have a poll watcher at each polling place on election day and during early voting. Poll watchers may also attend absentee ballot processing and the counting and tabulation of ballots. Poll watchers are persons who observe the election process and can challenge the eligibility of voters at the polls on behalf of candidates, political parties and groups with an interest in measures on the ballot. The poll watcher authorization form is found in this book and must be filed with the county clerk. Poll watchers must present the poll watcher authorization form when entering the polling place. A candidate may designate the poll watcher to attend one or more polls during the election. However, a candidate may have only one poll watcher in a poll at any given time. In order to avoid delays, candidates should process poll watcher forms with the county clerk before election day. [A.C.A. §7-5-312]

Can a candidate be a poll watcher?

A candidate may not be a poll watcher at a polling place on election day. During early voting, a candidate can be present to observe the voting process but not to challenge voters. When the polls close a candidate may serve as a poll watcher for the purpose of observing the processing of absentee ballots and the counting and tabulation of all ballots. A candidate may challenge the absentee ballots of ineligible voters during processing. A candidate may also observe the counting and tabulation of ballots. Candidates who observe early voting or serve as a poll watcher at absentee ballot voter processing must present ID to an election official. [ACA §§7-5-312(a)(1); 7-5-413(d); 7-5-417; Board of Election Commissioners Rules on Poll Watchers, Vote Challenges and Provisional Voting, §903]

Presence at Polls

How should a candidate who has non-election business at the courthouse (or a polling place that is also a business or government facility) while voting is occurring conduct himself/herself?

Any person, including candidates, with non-election business in a polling place must not linger in the voting room any longer than necessary to conduct her/his business and should not do anything that might be construed as electioneering. Candidates should not speak with voters standing in line. It is a crime to electioneer in any manner with persons standing in line to vote inside or outside the courthouse. [A.C.A. §§7-1-103(a)(9)(B); 7-1-104(a)(7); 7-5-310 as amended by Act 965 of 2019]

Can a candidate or a representative of a candidate go into a polling place to pick up voter data?

Generally, no, unless the “representative” is a credentialed poll watcher. The county election commission has statutory discretion to allow other persons in the polling place. Such arrangements should be worked out before the election. Anyone allowed in the poll may not do anything to disrupt the conduct of the election. [A.C.A. §7-5-310]

Assisting Voters

May a candidate assist voters in marking and casting their ballots?

A candidate may only assist voters who are related to them within the second degree of consanguinity.

Any voter who is unable to mark or cast a ballot without help may be assisted by either two poll workers or any one person of the voter's choice. The voter (not the assistant) must first notify the poll worker that he/she needs assistance. The assistant must mark the ballot according to the voter's wishes and without comment or interpretation. It is a crime to assist more than six voters in any election. [A.C.A. §§7-5-310 as amended by Act 965 of 2019; 7-1-103(a)(20)(C)]

Candidate's Name on Ballot

How is the order that the names of candidates appear on the ballot determined?

The county board of election commissioners determines ballot positions for all offices by lot after filing is complete. The date of the ballot draw will be published in a local newspaper. Candidates are encouraged to attend this public meeting and should contact the county election commission for information about the ballot draw. [Generally, see A.C.A. §7-7-305(b)]

What if there is a mistake in the way my name is printed on the ballot?

Candidates may attend the public testing of voting machines, and mistakes caught at that time can usually be fixed. By attending the public testing, candidates can also assure the accuracy of the machines. The dates and times of the public testing are published in a local newspaper. Contact the election commission for more information. If the mistake is on a printed ballot, submit an affidavit to the election commission pointing out the mistake. The election commission must meet to either resolve the mistake or state why the mistake cannot be fixed. [A.C.A. §7-5-209]

Election Official Conflicts

My opponent's husband has been an election official in the past. Can a husband serve as an election official in an election where the wife is on the ballot?

An election official whose spouse, child, parent, or grandparent is a candidate may be disqualified if challenged. The list of election day officials must be posted in a public place in the County Clerk's office no later than 15 days before the election. The list of early voting election officials must be posted in a public place in the County Clerk's office no later than 15 days before the beginning of early voting. Challenges must be made no later than 10 days after such posting. Contact the election commission for the date of posting election officials. [A.C.A. §7-4-109(d), 7-5-202(b)]

Recounts

How does a candidate ask for a recount?

The county board of election commissioners must conduct a recount for any candidate who is dissatisfied with the results of an election and who asks for a recount. [A.C.A. §7-5-319]

Generally, a candidate has two days to ask for a recount after the preliminary and unofficial results of the election are declared by the county election commission. This declaration usually is made on election night, so the deadline is usually the next Thursday after the election.

However, if the number of outstanding military and overseas civilian ballots is enough to potentially change the outcome of the election, a candidate may ask for a recount any time before the county election commission certifies the result of the election. Note, that the military and overseas civilian absentee ballots that may be counted if received after election day must arrive at the county clerk's office by the tenth day after the election. A candidate considering asking for a recount under these circumstances should be in frequent contact with the election commission regarding its plans for certification.

The candidate bears the cost of the recount if the result of the election is not changed. If the candidate wins as a result of the recount, the costs are refunded to the candidate. The costs must be paid up front. The actual cost is not to exceed, $0.25 per vote cast in precincts where a recount is requested with a maximum cost of $2,500 per county. [A.C.A. §7-5-319]

Candidate Eligibility

What is the process for challenging a candidate based on eligibility?

During the party filing period, a party candidate is required to file an affidavit of eligibility with the party stating that he or she is eligible to serve in the office sought. [A.C.A. §§7-1-101(2); 7-7-301]

A.C.A. §7-5-805 addresses contests to the eligibility and qualifications of members of the State Senate and State House of Representatives, which are ultimately decided by the legislative body itself. Otherwise, any challenge of a candidate's eligibility to run for office would be decided in an election contest by a court of law.

The campaign finance and public disclosure laws of Arkansas require candidates for public office to file disclosure documents relating to their campaigns, as well as their personal financial interests. Public office includes any and all state, district, county, municipal and township offices, as well as school boards.

Candidates for State, District, County, Municipal, Township, and School Board offices must file certain Campaign Contribution and Expenditure Reports when contributions received or expenditures made in any election exceed five hundred dollars ($500). A candidate is required to file a final report for each election in which the candidate's name has appeared on the ballot, or when only one (1) candidate qualifies for a particular office or position and no position or name of an unopposed candidate shall appear on a ballot, regardless of whether he or she has received contributions or made expenditures in excess of five hundred dollars ($500).

Candidates for State, District, County, Municipal, Township, and School Board must file a Statement of Financial Interest for the previous calendar year on the first Monday following the close of the period to file as a candidate for the elective office. Incumbent officeholders who filed a Statement of Financial Interest for the previous calendar year by January 31 of the year in which an election is held are not required to file an additional Statement of Financial Interest upon becoming a candidate for reelection or election to another office during the year.

Blank candidate disclosure forms and instructions are available from the Secretary of State and sample forms can be found on the Arkansas Ethics Commission website at www.arkansasethics.com. Blank reporting forms and instructions are available from the Secretary of State and on the Arkansas Ethics Commission website at www.arkansasethics.com.

Please note, however, that for candidates for state or district office (including district judge) must file Campaign Contribution and Expenditure Reports in electronic form through the official website of the Secretary of State.

State and District Candidates [A.C.A. §7-6-207, 7-6-210, 7-6-213; Rules on Campaign Finance & Disclosure §§201, 218, 219, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 246]

Once a report becomes due, however, the payment of the filing fee from the candidate's personal funds must be reported as either a loan or contribution to the campaign and also as a campaign expenditure.

Final reports are required regardless of whether a candidate has received contributions or made expenditures in excess of five hundred dollars ($500).

Quarterly Report:

- Filed with the Secretary of State.
- For each quarter during a calendar year in which a candidate is not listed on any ballot for election, a quarterly report of all contributions received, with loans stated separately, and expenditures made during that quarter shall be filed.
- Due no later than fifteen (15) days after the end of each quarter.
- If a candidate files for office during the party filing period, for the quarter including the party filing period, the candidate shall:

- If a candidate files for office during the party filing period, for the quarter including the party filing period, the candidate shall file monthly reports for the months of the quarter that includes the party filing period, and not file a quarterly report that includes the party filing period.
- Due no later than fifteen (15) days after the end of each month.
- If a candidate files for office during the party filing period, for the quarter including the party filing period, the candidate shall:
 - (1) File monthly reports for the months of the quarter that includes the party filing period; and
 - (2) Not file a quarterly report for the quarter that includes the party filing period.

NOTE: No monthly report shall be due for any month in which certain days of that month are included in a preelection report or a final report. In the case of a primary or runoff election, those days of the month occurring after the date of the election shall be carried forward and included in the next monthly report.

Preelection Report:

- Filed with the Secretary of State.
- Before any primary, runoff, general, or special election in which the candidate's name appears on the ballot, a preelection report of all contributions received, with loans stated separately, and expenditures made between the period covered by the previous report and the period ten (10) days before the election shall be filed.
- In the case of a runoff election, covers the period beginning after the date of the election from which the runoff election arose and ending ten (10) days before the runoff election.
- Due no later than seven (7) days before each applicable election.

NOTE: Preelection reports are required only for candidates with opponents in those elections.

Final Report:

- Filed with the Secretary of State.
- After the end of the month in which the candidate's name appeared on the ballot in any primary, runoff, or general election, or when only one (1) candidate qualifies for a particular office or position and no position or name of an unopposed candidate shall appear on a ballot, a final report of all contributions received, with loans stated separately, and expenditures made that have not been disclosed on reports previously filed shall be filed.

NOTE: A final report is required regardless of whether a candidate has received contributions or made expenditures in excess of five hundred dollars ($500).

Report Content:

- Any personal loan made to a candidate by a financial institution and applied toward the candidate's campaign, with the name of the financial institution, the amount of the loan, and the name of the guarantor, if any.
- The total amount of contributions received, with loans stated separately, and the total amount of expenditures made during the filing periods, and the cumulative amount of those totals for the entire election cycle.

- The current balance of campaign funds.

NOTE: If a candidate keeps his or her campaign funds in interest-bearing accounts such as a bank checking account, a money market fund, or a certificate of deposit, the interest earned is not treated as a contribution for reporting purposes, but is considered in calculating the balance of campaign funds at the close of the reporting period and is disclosed in the summary information on the campaign contribution and expenditure reports.

When the candidate's campaign has ended, the final report shall also include:

- How surplus funds, if any, were disposed.
- The amount of surplus funds disposed of by the candidate.
- The amount of funds retained by the candidate as carryover funds.

NOTE: If the candidate's campaign has not ended, the candidate is not required to dispose of remaining campaign funds, but may carry them forward to the general primary, general, or general runoff election for that same office.

For information on the periods covered by the reports and for deadlines for filing the reports, see the Reporting Calendars beginning on page 99.

For information on reporting on retirement of campaign debt, surplus campaign funds, and carryover funds, see pages beginning on page 137.

All contribution and expenditure reports required to be filed shall be verified by affidavit of the candidate or a person acting in the candidate's behalf stating that to the best of the candidate's knowledge and belief, the information disclosed is a complete, true, and accurate financial statement of the candidate's campaign contributions and expenditures.

A candidate is not required to file a preelection report if he or she has not received contributions or made expenditures in excess of five hundred dollars ($500). In calculating the amount of contributions received or expenditures made, the payment of the filing fee from the candidate's personal funds shall not be counted towards the five hundred dollar ($500) reporting trigger. Once a report becomes due, however, the payment of the filing fee from the candidate's personal funds must be reported as either a loan or a contribution to the campaign and also as a campaign expenditure.
