Arkansas Spinal Cord Foundation announces scholarship opportunities to help pursue your education

Arkansas Spinal Cord Foundation (ASCF) announces the Sandra Turner Memorial Scholarships for 2017 with a “CALL FOR APPLICATIONS.” We encourage those wanting to further their education to apply. ASCF’s mission is to improve the quality of life for persons with spinal cord injuries and those who live with challenges associated with spinal cord diseases such as Spina Bifida, Multiple Sclerosis, ALS, and Spinal Spondylosis. A large part of fulfilling our mission is to help individuals like you to achieve their education goals.

Applications are due by July 31, 2017. We encourage any individual with a spinal cord disability who is enrolled or planning to enroll in college or vocational/technical school to take this opportunity to apply for assistance.

Scholarship application and instructions for completion may be downloaded from the ASCF’s website at www.spinalcord.ar.gov.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Must be an Arkansas resident.
- Must have a medically documented spinal cord disability and be a client of ASCF.
- Prior acceptance to a college, university, or vocational/technical training program for 2017 Fall semester. This will include undergraduate or master’s level programs.
- Must complete and submit the ASCF Sandra Turner Memorial Scholarship application and all required documents by July 31, 2017.

All applications will be reviewed by ASCF’s Scholarship Selection Committee.

For additional information or questions contact Mandy Carmack by calling (501) 247-1977 or sending an e-mail to mandy@asilr.com.

Deadline for applications is on or before July 31, 2017.
